BOWNECK - records

so now that i'm down down down to my last braincell
i can finally see with my eyes closed and my mind shrapnelled

You'll believe my lies when i creep inside your mind and give you the illusion that none of us would ever have to die

i'm true today, what have you come and sworn?

help me lift this curse - kill this demon deliver my rebirth - give me freedom

Bowneck - Dialectic Disorder and Race to Oblivion - naming that hints at a style of music which defines its own borders and tears down walls - and that leaves marks and bruises.

Somewhere on the razor's edge between rock and metal and with progressive influences Bowneck strains neck and soul.

Born in 2005 in Aachen, Germany, Bowneck's Alternative Metal is honest to the core, yet without predictability.

Mastermind Thomas messes with anyone's head while Mathes, Enis and Timm provide the thump.

Vampster.com says: 'The brute force, with which typical prog elements are broken up with, is sometimes frightening'

Got it? Good!
